PSHE:

We will be:

thinking about the online world and how I am influenced by what I see online

French:

We will be:

listening and selecting information from short audio passages identifying key information in simple writing.

DT:

We will be:

using mechanical systems

testing and evaluating products, building a framework using a range of materials to support mechanisms.

Computing:

We will be:

identifying features of videos,

understanding what to do if seeing uncomfortable media

suggesting filming techniques for a given purpose

English:

We will be using the book Holes by Louis Sacher as a stimulus for our writing.

We will be writing balanced arguments, letters and newspaper reports .

Maths:

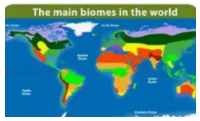

We will be covering:

Multiplication and division

Fractions

Volume

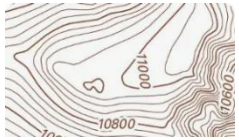

What is our world really like?

Investigating our world.

Sycamore

Autumn 2, 2026

Geography:

We will be:

analysing and comparing a place, or places, using aerial photographs. atlases and maps, using compass points, grid references and scale to interpret maps with accuracy, identifying elevated areas, depressions and river basins on a relief map, naming and locating the world's biomes.

Music:

We will be:

performing rhythms confidently,

identifying the sounds of different instruments.

PE: We will develop our skills in:

Outdoor PE:

Invasion games

Indoor P.E

Dance

Science:

We will be:

learning about our Solar System and its spherical celestial bodies, describing the movements of the Earth and the other planets relative to the Sun, the Moon relative to Earth, explaining night and day, describing or modelling the movement of the Moon relative to Earth,

Religion and World Views:

We will be exploring the question:

Why is the Bible important to some Christians in worship both in church and at home?

Art:

We will be:

describing and discussing how different artists and cultures have used a range of visual elements, creating a relief form using a range of tools, techniques and materials.

Please note: this plan is not carved in stone, nor is it exhaustive, and we do pride ourselves on being spontaneous. Forgive us if we sometimes deviate from it.